Privacy Policy

Protecting Your Privacy

St. Michael's College School recognizes that your right to privacy is an essential issue. We understand your interest in protecting your private information while using our services and facilities or donating to the activities of the School. Our relationship with you is founded on trust and we are committed to maintaining this trust.

For these reasons, our privacy policy incorporates the highest standards set out in federal and provincial legislation across Canada. It confirms our dedication to protecting your privacy and maintaining the trust that you have placed in us.

Our Practices

Personal information gathered by our organization is kept in confidence. We do not sell, trade or otherwise share our mailing lists.

We collect, use and disclose personal information only for the purpose of processing donations, keeping our donors informed about the activities of the College School and to ask for support in our mission.

We also take measures to ensure the integrity of this information is maintained and to prevent its being lost or destroyed. We are committed to protecting personal information by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information.

If at any time you wish to be removed from any mailing or for further information on privacy and your rights in regard to your personal information, please e-mail us at advancement@smcsmail.com or contact us by phone at 416-653-4483 and we will accommodate your request.
